

Monitoring drug use in recreational settings across Europe: conceptual challenges and methodological innovations

Author(s)

European Monitoring Centre for Drugs and Drug Addiction

Published

2018

Publisher

Publications Office of the European Union

Type

Technical report

Abstract

This report explores how data on drug use are captured through surveys of targeted populations in recreational settings. The benefits and challenges of monitoring drug use in recreational settings are identified, as are emergent data sources and methodological innovations. The report draws on cutting-edge debates within social research, sociology and critical drug studies to encourage dialogue between researchers and with monitoring agencies.

Web Link

Link to the technical report

View PDF